

Chorophobia - Fear of dancing

by James N., Chicago

Answer:

This is a variation of a basic chess logic puzzle. Each lyric gives the movement of a chess piece, and the solver needs to figure out the steps taken. The notes give the number of squares moved on each line. Each dancer makes an identical movement, in a different orientation. The steps are marked below.

The completed movements spell: LETTERS / RIGHT OF / DANELLE / BZXOPGG. The letters to the right of BZXOPGG (keeping track of Danelle's orientation) spell RAPIDLY
