

Choir Rehearsal

Here is your music for Tuesday's choir rehearsal. Music is read from left to right, just like regular text. However, remember that a good choir singer reads all four lines together as a group from left to right.

You must b sharp to pick out the correct notes and connect the dots in the music. Whatever you do, don't give up! Play on! Those three words of "I Love You" are magical, but The Bard came up with four words describing what music is that are also memorable! (This puzzle can be solved without note reading, however it provides an extra clue. See the music tip sheet or an online resource as needed.)

I Love You!

Lyrics by E. Goode
Music by B.D. Fine

Soprano
You are the world to me. They could take a-way all food and drink,

Alto
You are the world to me. They could take a-way all food and drink,

Tenor
You are the world to me. They could take a-way all food and drink,

Bass
You are the world to me. They could take a-way all food and drink,

I would still sur-vive be-cause of you. I love you!_

I would still sur-vive be-cause of you. I love you!_

I would still sur-vive be-cause of you. I love you!_

I would still sur-vive be-cause of you. I love you!_
