

Dogs of Puzzled Pint!

First, how is the answer to this puzzle found?

Using the dogs of Puzzled Pint, we created an unusual location puzzle for this Fifth month of the year. We reached out to all of our Game Control folks and asked for a Word about their dogs. The response was great! Here are some lovely pictures of their dogs And a nice description of each. The dogs had some opinions though, and initially thought that the Indexing should be done by dogs and not by pints! There was some serious debate on this, By the way. In the end, the dogs suggested something else for puzzle Ratings. What did they want the ratings to be by instead?
