

Puzzles after Polls

V 1.0

After the U.S. elections concluded, most candidates probably had a drink, some to celebrate and others to forget. There have been many politicians who were also famous for other reasons, let's meet some of them so we can determine where to go exactly one week after the majority of the votes were cast:

J E R R Y S P R I N G E R

_____ _ █ █ █ _____ was a mayor (in the hometown of the Reds in a year when the team finished in second place with that year's league MVP on their roster) and became a talk show host.
