

The 12 Days of Christmas

When their work for the year is done, Santa’s elves throw a twelve-day-long celebration. This year, Bumble, Pixel, Sparkle and Frazzle are in charge of the various activities. Unfortunately, each elf has a requirement that makes scheduling a bit tricky...

Bumble: “I want my activities to go from shortest word to longest word.”

Pixel: “I want my activities to go chronologically.”

Sparkle: “I want my activities to go from the fewest words to the most words.”

Frazzle: “I want my activities to go alphabetically.”
