HARDWON'S HEARTACHE

Hardwon Surefoot and Gemma Bronzebeard were in love. However, the two were total opposites - Hardwon was tall while Gemma was short, Hardwon was a commoner while Gemma was a princess, and Hardwon was human while Gemma was a dwarf. Gemma's father, King Wilhelm Bronzebeard, strongly opposed their relationship, so they had to hide their relationship and date in secret.

Bring the opposites together to discover how Hardwon felt when Gemma eventually broke up with him.

BEVERLY'S BIG TEST

first letter of wrong answers spells out DASH - use morse, with wrong answers being dashes and right answers being dots

Beverly Toegold is a halfling paladin who is a proud member of the Green Teen scout troop. Green Teens are never mean, their souls are sublime, and their hearts are pristine. And of course, Green Teens always try to do the right thing.

Beverly is taking a test. But sometimes, there might be multiple right answers, or no right answers at all! Beverly likes to eliminate all the wrong answers first, and then neatly fill in the bubbles for all the correct answers. Help Beverly ace the test and find a word that he could use to describe himself.

Moonshine Cybin hails from the Crick, a swampland located within the Living Woods. As a Circle of Spores Druid, she has a special link to fungi. Moonshine's mushroom patch in the Crick is filled with different types of mushrooms. One particular type of mushroom, the Tasty Toadstool, needs to be watered extremely often.

However, Moonshine has forgotten where the Tasty Toadstools are growing, and all the different spores look the same! Luckily, the Tasty Toadstools feel different from the rest of the other mushrooms. At the top of each column and on the left of each row, she's marked the number of Tasty Toadstools that are growing adjacent to one another. Use the information to help Moonshine figure out which squares to water. What will happen to the Tasty Toadstools if Moonshine does not water them?

EXAMPLE:

The numbers on the top and left of the grid correspond to the number of Toadstools growing in a row. In the below example, above the first column, there is a "2" and then a "1", denoting a group of 2 Toadstools, then 1 Toadstool.

BALNOR'S BAG

On our heroes' travels, Beverly Toegold picked out a card from a Deck of Many Things. The card he picked just happened to summon a halfling fighter named Balnor. Though weaker than the rest of the crew, Balnor the Brave became a crucial part of the team. One of his most important jobs was to watch the Bag of Holding, a bag that contains a portal to the Astral Plane.

However, Balnor just checked the bag, and it is empty! Instead, there is a pile of items lying on the ground, and Balnor must figure out which ones were originally in the bag. Help Balnor categorize these objects into two categories: those that were in the bag, and those that were not. Only then will you figure out what he was doing when the bag was turned inside out.
