

Hubert remembers the first time someone called him "square." He had no idea what it meant – so he looked it up: "old-fashioned, boringly conventional." When he was younger, he had always thought of himself as a bit of a rebel, so this new label really upset him: he felt like he had been cut up into pieces and had to reorganize everything just to make sense of it all. After doing all that, he read some old letters left over from his rowdy childhood friend Louis, and he
